Good evening dear readers. Firstly i would like to start with some apologies.

After reading my flannel in what is now last months link, i can only say how appalling my grammar was. i didn't make much sense to me and i wrote it, so you dear reader didn't really stand a chance. I blame it on my typing, which is so slow, that my single yet active brain cell, is thinking of other things that could be used in this editorial, and not what it should necessarily be doing.

Secondly i apologies for letting a four year old, beat me and every one else in the tallest sunflower again this year. The good news is i know where they are grown, so there could be a bit of under handed skullduggery afoot next year, anyway congratulation Ashley for growing a sun flower 121 inches tall, that's 308 cms if your under fifty. .

As most of you will know, lately we were all saddened by the passing of our good friend Alwyn Spry, and i thought that i should write a small piece.

I can remember Alwyn since i was a snotty, yet cute 5 year old, being in primary school with Jonathan Mark and Lyn, and we also went to Sunday school together. In those days the annual Christmas party at the Victory hall was one of the high lights of all children in the local parishes, and i am sure Alwyn and Albert were heavily involved in organizing it.

Alwyn was on the original committee of the LRA, when we took over the running of the news link back in about 1996,or7, and she remained on the committee until about 2010, always giving clear and sensibly advice, on all topics we covered, and helping when ever she could. She was also for many years was clerk to the parish council.

My most abiding memory of her and her husband Albert, was after dinner and dances, held regularly at the Victory hall back in the 1970s, she took great delight in dragging some rather unenthusiastic teenagers on to the dance floor to give them a crash coarse in dancing the progressive waltz, or the Jay Gordons, yes your chairperson being one of them. Happy days, if not slightly embarrassing at the time. She will be greatly missed and we send our love to all the family.

Talking of families, four generations of our family, recently went on a excursion on August back holiday. We all went to Liskeard, and caught the train to Looe. Its a beautiful, if short journey of under ten miles. Grandad, and grandson did go for a paddle, and we built sand castles, which Noah promptly knocked down again. Noah was fascinated by the crab fishing off the harbour, but his favorite had to be the ice cream, which he some how managed to cover himself with, and we have the photos to prove it, just to embarrass the poor devil with, in say 20 years time.

Anyway will close now as \England are about to play Argentina in the rugby world cup, and on recent form, they are going to struggle, but we live in hope. Best wishes to you all from your chairperson Tim Nash.

Nature around us...

On the evening of the 12th September I witnessed something that I had never seen before in my life. At 7.00 that evening with the sky covered grey with clouds that I became aware of a large number of swallows and house martins flying low around and around the trees' outside the house. As I went to look closer I could see that hundreds and hundreds of these summer visitors were going up high in the sky. The birds were calling to each other as they swooped back down low to the ground then went up higher and higher where more birds joined this mass gathering this went on for about an hour before they moved down the valley. The next day there was not one swallow or house martin to be seen, they had gathered together and started that long migration journey south for the winter. I will look forward to seeing them come back next spring

Lewdown Speedwatch Group

- Are you concerned by the speed of vehicles?
- Had a near miss turning onto the old A30?
- Can you spare an hour twice a month?
- Want to make a difference?

At present we do not have sufficient operators to get a group of three (3) together to work effectively monitoring speeds and educating people to drive slower in the built-up areas.

We need to increase the number of volunteers within the pool of operators. The bigger the pool of operators the less time individual people spend out but the more often a group can get out.

If you wish to know more, please contact Terry Southcott (lead coordinator) for more information on (07831) 309666

Lewtrenchard WI September Report

We met on September 11 at Lewdown Victory Hall.

Barbara greeted 13 Members (as Margaret was on holiday) and extended a warm welcome to our guest speaker Miriam (Mim) Christine (who kindly stepped in at the very last moment when The Women's Centre Cornwall cancelled). We wished Judy a Happy Birthday and sang a lovely rendition of Jerusalem.

We heard that George Bellamy is in hospital and wish

George a speedy recovery, our thoughts are with Heather & the family.

Mim works full time as an Environmental Monitoring Technician & in her spare time volunteers for Butterfly Conservation Cornwall. Mim has recently joined the Committee & offered to speak to us. Mim studied Zoology & is interested in all things conservation. She is enjoying her new role in leadership. Butterflies are in trouble! Their decline has been massive; the loss of natural meadows & climate change are two reasons. But fear not, Butterfly Conservation (founded in 1968) has lots of exciting things planned to help. The charity works closely with landowners, holding work parties & inviting everyone do their bit by creating wildflower meadows, clearing paths through bracken & performing butterfly counts. You can help by creating wild spaces in flower pots, balconies or gardens. No mowing for a month does wonders to help. We can also plant butterfly-friendly plants like oxeye daisies & yellow rattle, avoid the use of pesticides & use peat-free soil. For information visit:

<https://butterfly-conservation.org/in-your-area/cornwall-branch>.

Join Butterfly Conservation here: <https://gardenbutterflysurvey.org>.

Mim was an enthusiastic speaker, informative, interesting & clearly passionate about her subject. Mim answered questions. We then stopped for some refreshments and a raffle. We donated the proceeds to Butterfly Conservation.

Date and venue for next meeting: Monday October 09, 2023 at 7.30pm.

October dates for your diary:

12 - Walk

19 - Coffee morning at Roadford Lake

Don't feel left out, Mary E is always on hand to organise a lift.

From The Parish Priest

October is a lovely month... fairly free of major occasions. In Church life we are also free from major festivities. There are plenty of those in November and December, but the calendar of saints presents us with a number of people who exemplified Christian faith and service in their lifetime.

There are some of the saints from the early days of the 7th Century Celtic church: Ethelburga, Wilfrid, Paulinus and Cedd. We remember them now with great thanks and fondness, but we are foolish if we forget that it was a time of great disagreement and debate. There are St. Francis of Assisi and St. Edward the confessor, who did much to shape and influence the life and mission of the church in their time despite many challenges and setbacks.. There is Martin Luther, a major figure in the Reformation who challenged the church's hypocrisy and corruption, and there are Nicholas Ridley, Hugh Latimer and William Tyndale who all died in the violence of the Reformation.

There is Bishop James Hannington who was killed taking the Gospel to Uganda at the end of the 19th Century, Elizabeth Fry, the great Quaker campaigner for proper treatment of offenders in prison, and Nurse Edith Cavell, martyred during the first world war. Each of these people, and thousands more all faced the challenges of their time to live and proclaim the Gospel. Sometimes they worked with the blessing of the church, sometimes they fought the church tooth and nail, and yet they are all remembered by the church for their faith and service.

Also, St Luke, the writer of the Third Gospel, as well as SS Simon and Jude, who, because of the similarity of his name to Judas is regarded as the Patron Saint of Lost causes and hopeless cases, which all if the aforementioned people must have felt at some point.

As we approach All Saintside at the start of next month, let us look to those who have gone before us for inspiration and encouragement as we seek to live and serve with the challenges that face us today.

With love and prayers,

Philip

The Tavistock Canal

An illustrated talk by Robert Waterhouse

7.30 pm Tuesday 12th October at the Parish Centre, Tavistock

Deep Lane, near Tavistock, runs under the canal

Once a busy canal, transporting ores from the mines around Mary Tavy, the Tavistock Canal still flows to supply for Morwellham power station. Many of the associated canal buildings and structures, such as bridges, basins, a lock and an unusual metal aqueduct (above), can still be seen in and around Tavistock. Its course offers a peaceful, scenic walk, and I'm sure that Robert will have some amazing photos from inside the 1½ mile tunnel, which is now off limits to the public.

Author and archaeologist Robert Waterhouse's definitive book is now sadly out of print, but you can come and hear more about the history of the canal and his research, which included documentary evidence and on-site investigations.

This month we are invited to join the Tavistock Local History Society for their meeting at the Parish Centre in Tavistock. This is to the right of the Bedford Hotel, set back a little from the Plymouth Road. There is usually plenty of parking on the road or the Wharf car park is free after 6pm. I believe they serve refreshments beforehand, so arrive in good time! Lifts available. Please let Graham know if you would like a lift, or could give one: phone 01566 783511.
